

This is unbelievable. It is a clear political/government point of concern. The FCC must recognize the political broadcast for what it is. Up until now I believed that the FCC was a responsible part of our government. If this broadcast goes on I will be beyond disillusioned.

Who owns the FCC? Is it the right wing rich people or is it all the people?

Please consider stopping this blatant use of political propaganda as an excuse for TV programming.